"Wilt" is apparently named after a famous basketball star of the past. I liked the bit with the crooked carnival guy. Alas, naïveté seldom pays off in a less-than-imaginary world. A carnival was the ideal setting for the Foster crowd, as most of them look like stuffed animals themselves.

Charles D. Brown
Brentwood, New York

Mac can see the Imaginary Friends. You and I can see the Imaginary Friends. So the carnival workers could see the Imaginary Friends. All I can say is, the Imagination is a powerful thing!

— Johnny DC

DRAWING BY CLAUDIA RÓJO, AGE 16

Dear Johnny DC

I love CARTOON NETWORK BLOCK PARTY but I loved it when POWERPUFF GIRLS was cancelled. I drew a picture of a PPG called Button. Her powers are freeze ray, mud bomb, and PPG magic (magic powers). She loves cheerleading and flying around the city. And plays soccer.

Gabriela Rojo, age 11
Zolfo Springs, Florida

Hey, Gabriela, Nina: DON'T play. They are very serious people. Old you ever see one smile?

anyway, I miss the POWERPUFF GIRLS comic book too. It's a good thing that BLOCK PARTY still brings a little Townsville into our lives.
